The Honorable Lamar Alexander
United States Senate
Washington D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Alexander:

Thank you for your letter of December 23, 2009, to President Barack Obama, expressing your interest in the pending rulemaking governing the management of coal combustion residuals.

As EPA Administrator Lisa Jackson discussed with you during the Subcommittee on Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies hearing on March 3, 2010, regarding EPA's rulemaking efforts, EPA is evaluating a number of issues with which you have expressed an interest including the handling, storage, and beneficial reuse of coal combustion residuals. EPA expects to issue a proposal in the near future. We appreciate your support for the beneficial reuse of coal combustion residuals and your interest in the Agency's rulemaking efforts. I can assure you that we will consider your comments and include them in the docket for this rulemaking.

Again, thank you for your letter. If you have further questions, please contact me or your staff may call Raquel Snyder, in EPA's Office of Congressional and Intergovernmental Relations, at (202) 564-9586.

Sincerely,

Mathy Stanislaus
Assistant Administrator
